A London paper has the following in-teresting report of Mr. Henson's re-marks upon the interview noted above: "The Rev. Josiah Henson ('Uncle Tom'), addressing a meeting in Edin-burgh, referred to his interview with the Queen. He said that when he saw the Queen. He said that when he saw the Queen she met him very gracefully, and they might rely on it that he endeavored to meet her as gracefully. (Laughter.) She was neatly dressed, so was I. (Laughter.) She came and made a very (Laughter.) She came and made a very polite bow to me, and so did I. (Laughter.) She said that she had long read of me, and heard a great deal about me, and was very happy to see me, indeed. I did not say ditto—(laughter)—but I thought ditto—(renewed laughter)—and said this, that I had had for a long time a great desire to see Her Majesty in person, that I might have the honor of presenting to Her Majesty honor of presenting to Her Majesty private thanks for the honor which she had conferred upon herself by granting United States slaves an asylum from the hand of the cool oppressor. I said when-ever a slave struck the soil of Great Britain he was a man, and a free man. Applause.) At every sentence Her Majesty would make a polite bow, and so would I—(laughter)—and I told ber how our petitions had been ascending to God in prayer and thankfulness for the privilege which she had given us in Canada from the armed hand of the oppressor. from the armed hand of the oppressor.

(Applause.) I soid that we would be always an honor to the Crown, and the greatest blessing we could confer on Her Majesty would be to hope that all her subjects ahould behave themselves.

(Laughter and applause.) The Queen, he said, then turned round to one of her ladies in attendance and got something, and walking back to me, asked if I would have this as a token from her. It was a beautiful—what do you call it?—(laugh-ter)—portrait. Here it is. (Mr. Hen-son here exhibited the portrait amid loud applause.) I was not, he proceeded to say, very nervous, for I had just get one of the finest dinners I ever had—(laughof the finest dinners I ever had—(laughter)—and I must say that I and Mr. Bowden enjoyed it very much. (Laughter.) There were three or four meubowing around us, and I thought I had got to a very fine place, as indeed I had. (Laughter.) The Queen then sent for my better-half and Mr. Bowden, and when they came up I found that he when they came up I found that be had found out the knack of bowing and scraping as well as myself. (Laughter.) And so we kept up bowing and backing to our fill. (Laughter.)

A friar, when preaching in a nunnery, observed to his female auditors, "be not to proud, that our blessed Lord paid your sex the distinguised honor of ap-pearing first to a female after the resurrection; for it was done that the glad tidings might spread the sconer."

A boy, an early riser, has been de-tected in stealing the pennies which a lady deposited in her milk and cream jugs for her milkman, and also in drink-ing the cream, a system that he has been practicing for some time. He ought to be weaned from such practices.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal emission is consequence of self abuse. This solital, vice, or depraved sexu indulgence, is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unsering certainty the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz. Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves or rattling of charicts, uncashness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a distile to form new equalitances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, pimples and various eruptions about the face, hectic flushes, furred tongue, fostid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomanis and frequently insanity. If relief be not obtained, you should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientife mode of treating disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure.

Cured at Home.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the discase has continued, and have medicina promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, in any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use.

A roof may be covered with a very cheap shingle, and by application of this state be made to last from 20 to 25 years. Old roofs can be patched and coated, looking much better, and lasting longer than the new shingles without the state, for

One-third the Cost of Reshingling. The expense of slating new shingles is only about the cost of simply laying them. The paint is fine-rhoof sgainst sparks or flying embers, as may easily be tested by any one.

IT STOPS EVERY LEAK.

And for tin or iron has no equal, as it expands by heat, contracts by cold, and NEYER CRACKS nor scales. Roofs covered with Tar Sheating Felt can be made water-tight at a small ex-pense, and preserved for many years. This Slate Paint is EXTREMELY CHEAP.

Two gallons will cover a hundred square feet of shingle roof, while on tin, iron, felt, matched beards, or any smooth surface, from two quarts to one gallon are required to 109 square feet of surface, and although the Paint has a heavy body it is easily applied with a brush.

No Tar is use in this Composition, Therefore it neither cracks in Winter, nor runs

On decayed shingles it fills up the holes and On decayed shingles it fills up the holes and pores, and gives a new substantial roof that will last for years. Curren or wanten shingles it brings to their piaces, and keeps them there, it fills up all holes in Felt roofs, stops the leaks—and although a slow dryer, rain does not affect it a few hours after applying.
